

Women Who Run With Wolves Workshops

Manawee – Union with the other

Sunday 18th June 2017 - 10am – 4.30pm

6 hrs CPD per workshop

These workshops are designed for women to connect with their soul's journey.

The ancient stories we will be using come from the book Women Who Run with the Wolves by Clarissa Pinkola Estes. They invite us to use our intuition to connect to a place of healing, through story-telling, sharing, ritual, movement and creative materials to open to the deep wisdom of the body and to listen to the soul's call.

An open invitation to women with a willingness and desire to connect. You do not need any prior experience and each workshop can be taken individually. There will be a maximum of 15 women.

In these workshops it is our intention to create a safe, sacred space in which we can connect as a community of women to share our feminine nature and spirit to guide our selves back home.
